

ATTACHMENT A (DENA)
DENALI NATIONAL PARK AND PRESERVE
SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Denali National Park and Preserve issues Incidental Business Permits for the following services: Air-Taxi, Flightseeing, Overnight Backpacking Guide, Day Hiking Guide, Winter Backcountry Guide, Guided Mountaineering, Group Camping at Savage Campground, and Big-Game Transporters in portions of the 1980 park additions.

A COPY OF THE INCIDENTAL BUSINESS PERMIT AND PARK PROVISIONS MUST BE CARRIED WITH EACH PERMITTEE (OR THEIR EMPLOYEES) WHILE OPERATING WITHIN THE BOUNDARIES OF DENALI NATIONAL PARK AND PRESERVE.

These provisions are applicable to those commercial activities authorized in your Incidental Business Permit.

1. The following areas [as generally depicted on the attached map] are CLOSED to incidental business permit activities:
 - a. All designated wilderness portions of Denali National Park and Preserve;
 - b. The Denali Park Road corridor (extending to the old Mt. McKinley National Park boundary north of Wonder Lake). Commercial passenger-carrying motor vehicles are allowed in the developed area (including the Denali Park Hotel, Alaska Railroad Depot, and motor vehicles to the McKinley Park Airstrip) from the Park entrance, at the George Parks Highway, to mile 2. No commercial passenger-carrying motor vehicles are allowed at the kennels area;
 - c. That portion of Denali National Park bounded by the old Mt. McKinley National Park boundary, the McKinley River, the Kantishna River, and the Toklat River (generally described as the Kantishna Hills area), with the exception that the Kantishna airstrip may be used for aircraft landing and takeoff; and
 - d. All Denali National Park campgrounds, except at the Savage Campground group site.
 - e. All glaciers in the 1980 park additions south of the Alaska Range are closed to landings by air taxi and flightseeing services.
 - f. The McKinley Park airstrip.
2. Guides may accompany their clients on the park bus system, but may not guide or engage in leadership activities with their clients while on the bus or while in areas closed to incidental business permit activities.
3. Savage Campground group sites:
 - a. Savage Campground group sites; space available, by advance reservations. For reservations and information call (907) 683-2294.
 - b. Use of the group site is limited to no more than 7 consecutive nights or 14 total site nights for the season.
 - c. Maximum group size is 20 persons per site including leaders and chaperons; the minimum size is 9.
 - d. Group campsites are designated for tent camping only.
 - e. The user fee is $40 per site per night plus park entrance fees; payable at the Visitor Center.
 - f. The maximum number of vehicles allowed is 2/site.
 - g. Passenger-carrying motor vehicles can only be used for access directly to and from group campsites for which a reservation is held.
 - h. Group leader must check in at the Visitor Access Center upon arrival in the park. Advance registrations will not be held past 6 pm unless the park is notified.
 - i. All food, including cans and bottles, ice chests, garbage and equipment used to cook or store food must be properly secured from the park's wildlife by placing the items in a hard-sided vehicle or in provided food storage lockers.
 - j. Do not harass wildlife or feed any park animals (including birds and squirrels).
 - k. Campground quiet hours are from 10pm to 6am.
4. The group size limit for overnight backpacking, day hiking, winter backcountry, guided mountaineering is 15 people, including guides.